Tasting note:

Full-bodied with black fruit, tar and smoke. Tannic, need decanting 2 hours. Terrific for hearty meat dishes.

More reviews:

Gold Medal winner at the 2011 Argentina Wines Awards in Mendoza. Big, woody and pure, with attractive plum and berry aromas that bring earth and toast. The mouth is alert and features textured tannins, while the flavor profile is a bit rooty and sweet, with roasted black fruit and spice. Grabby, warm and stout on the finish. Score: 91 MS
