Tasting note:

Incredibly rich and complex with layers of varied dark fruits, smoke and cedary richness. Full-bodied: decant 2 hours. This will also do very well in the cellar.

More reviews:

The 2009 Malbec was made from 84-year-old vines and aged for 12 months in 33% new French oak. Wood smoke, a hint of cocoa, Asian spices, incense, and black cherry compose the bouquet of this impeccably balanced, incipiently complex, layered wine. Give it 2-3 years to fully blossom and drink it from 2013 to 2021. Score: 91 JMI
