

THE BEST OF ARGENTINA FROM

By Dr. Jay Miller - December 2010

With Argentina coming on so strongly in the USA market and having covered its rise for the past four years, now seems like a good time to assess who's on top.

THE BEST OF THE BEST:

Achaval Ferrer - for exploring Mendoza's best terroirs for Malbec

Alta Vista - for their single vineyard Malbecs and Alto blend

Catena Zapata - for all-around excellence

Viña Cobos - for stunningly rich Malbecs and some awesome values in

The Felino line

Colomé Reserva - for their high-elevation, old-vine Malbec Reserva

Luca - for showcasing wines other than Malbec

MENDEL

FOR ROBERTO DE LA MOTA'S BRILLIANT TALENT AND SPIRIT

Tikal - for creative blends of Bonarda

Yacochuya - for Michel Rolland leaving no stone unturned
