The 2007 Unus is a blend of 70% Malbec and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon sourced from the same vineyard as the Malbec cuvee. It was aged for 16 months in new French oak. It is a bit darker in color and more expressive and complex aromatically. Rich, intense and layered bordering on opulent, this medium- to full-bodied wine manages to retain a sense of elegance along with plenty of power. It has enough structure to blossom for another 4-6 years and will be at its best from 2014 to 2022.

Mendel's talented winemaker is Roberto de la Mota of Cheval de los Andes fame.
